THE RIVERCREST STYLES

Welcome to Broadview Homes in picturesque Rivercrest, a scenic new neighbourhood on the sunny side of Cochrane.

The styles of Rivercrest have been carefully selected to create a friendly community with small town spirit and modern sensibilities. Broadview has created a line up of homes available in each architectural style so that you can choose a home that compliments your own tastes as well as the stunning valley views and nature found steps from your door.

Learn more about our Rivercrest styles here, and speak with a Broadview representative to find out more about how we can build you the home of your dreams, whatever they may be!

CRAFTSMAN

Growing out of the earth, the Craftsman style is an extension of its natural surroundings. Incorporating wood and stone, these traditional homes often feature distinctively sturdy columns and solid brackets to support rooflines that are slightly steeper in pitch. Other design elements such as shakes and vertical siding are often used to call to mind the decorative history of the style.

COLONIAL

This elevation is influenced by Georgian architecture and emphasizes symmetrical massing, or forms. A great mix of classic and modern tastes, colonial homes often include gable roofs, classical columns, brick work and individual windows that create an over all balanced look to the home.

FOUR SQUARE

This distinctive style harkens back to Frank Lloyd Wright and similar designs of the early 20th century in the American Mid-West. Homes are unique and simplistic with strong horizontal lines, shallow pitched roofs, and large overhanging eaves. Mason work, wide porches, and rows of windows with minimal detailing often stand out on Four Square homes.
